Book Fair is Here!

Come to the book fair and show your support for Glenview. Scholastic has provided a great selection of books for you to choose from, ranging from picture books to please a preschooler to the latest, greatest young adult novels. Join us for the kick off on Saturday, February 17 and Saturday, February 24, from 10-1 in the Library. We will have treats! You can shop from the teachers' wish lists to help them build classroom libraries and stock up so your students are ready for the Read-A-Thon.

We are open at 9 every morning and will be open until 3:00. Students will get the opportunity to visit the Book Fair during the regular library time. If you cannot make it in person, you can shop online at <http://bookfairs.scholastic.com/homepage/glenview>. All proceeds benefit Glenview Elementary library.

If you have questions or want to help out, email Jennifer Mahan at jenmahan@lmi.net or sign up at <http://www.signupgenius.com/go/10c0e4aaaab2aa0fd0-2018>.

Day of Literacy Volunteers

This year we will celebrate the culmination of Glenview's 20th Annual Read-a-Thon with a 'Day of Literacy' from 9am-12pm on Wednesday, March 7th! Kids will get to wear their pajamas to school and local authors, parents, and other community members will come read in the classrooms. If you are interested in reading to a class, we would love to have you participate! Please contact Rita at rmlindahl@gmail.com.

Girls Leadership Workshop

Girls Leadership offers a series of courses to equip girls with the skills to exercise the power of their voice, for K/1 and 2/3 grade

Black History Night Thanks!

We had an amazing evening of learning & fun on Friday evening! Special thanks to our Black History Committee for their hard work: Samara Jones, Sadiqa Williams and the Learning Spot staff, Sally Steele, Kourtney Wagner, Leila Nichols, Laura Prival, Britt Anderson, and Kay Priester.

(H)our Glenview Volunteer Opportunities!

We are asking families to donate ONE HOUR of their time between now and Spring Break (March 30th). Have you donated yours yet?

- Volunteer to host a party for the Spring Fling Fundraiser! (email us at glenviewfundraising@gmail.com)
- Can't help during the workday? No problem. You can level books at home in the evening, volunteer at the Saturday book fair (February 17 and February 24 from 10:00 am - 1:00 pm: email Jennifer Mahan at jenmahan@lmi.net)
- Help with Read-a-Thon activities! (email us at glenviewfundraising@gmail.com)

girls plus one adult. In the upcoming workshops, girl & grown-up pairs will learn about identifying healthy relationships, finding their voices, and communicating more effectively. Girls also develop resilient responses to conflict, drama, challenges, and mistakes. The program is interactive, fun, and enlightening, and it's also a great opportunity to gain insight and spend time with your daughter in a new and different way.

These workshops are currently private to our community but will open to the public on January 24th, so please reserve your spot now. Spaces do fill up and we don't want you to miss out on this unique opportunity. Scholarships are available. Visit girlsleadership.org/scholarships for more details.

Host a Party & Get to Know More Griffins!

We are looking to expand this year's party list and spread some Griffins Spirit! Consider hosting a party, a tour or an event with a friend or two. Events can be held at your home, in a public setting (park, beach, forest, etc.) or at your place of business (if allowed, of course). They can be adult, family or just kids focused. You can either pick a theme or idea of your choice or take one of ours.

Contact us at glenviewfundraising@gmail.com with any questions.
